1. General Provisions

1.1. The present Procedural Rules are developed in accordance with Part 3 of Article 77 of the Federal Law No. 273-FZ of December 29, 2012 "On Education in the Russian Federation", the Order of the Olympiad for School Students, approved by Order of the Ministry of Science and Higher Education of the Russian Federation of No. 566 of June 22, 2022, Regulations on Interregional Subject Olympiads of Federal State Autonomous Educational Institution of Higher Education "Kazan (Volga Region) Federal University" No. 0.1.1.67-08/49/2026 of August 26, 2026 (hereinafter referred to as the Regulations) and determines the order and terms of participation in the Interregional Subject Olympiads of Kazan (Volga Region) Federal University (hereinafter referred to as the Olympiads) in the academic year 2026/27.

2. General Procedure for the Olympiads

2.1. The Olympiads are held in two stages:

− The qualifying stage, which is held in form of tasks to be completed online remotely;

− the final stage, which is held in person, including with the use of distance learning technologies that ensure real-time identification of the participants of the final stage of the Olympiads and control over their compliance with the conditions and requirements of the Olympiads, established by the organizer of the Olympiads

2.2. All stages of the Olympiads are conducted in the subjects listed in Appendix 1 hereto.

2.3. The Olympiads shall be held among students of programs of basic general and secondary general education, including persons mastering educational programs of basic general and secondary general education in the form of homeschooling or self-learning, as well as persons mastering these educational programs abroad, and persons mastering educational programs of secondary professional education in the field of arts.

2.4. Information for the Olympiads participants is published on official web-sites and official social networks accounts.

2.4.1. For Russians:

– https://malun.kpfu.ru/mpo (hereinafter - the Olympiads web-site);

– https://max.ru/id1655018018_gos35;

– https://vk.com/pre_university_kfu;

2.4.2. for foreign nationals:

– https://malun.kpfu.ru/mpo/fc (hereinafter – the Olympiads web-site for foreign nationals);

– https://max.ru/id1655018018_gos56.

3. Registration

3.1. Registration is held remotely on the Olympiads web-site or the Olympiads web-site for foreign nationals. Registration is only possible via PC, laptop, or tablet. Registration via mobile devices is not allowed.

3.2. During registration, a username and password will be generated for you to log into your personal account, as well as the ID number of the participant of the Olympiad. The participants are not allowed to transfer the username, password, and ID to third parties. The participants are required to keep their username, password, and ID until the end of the Olympiads.

3.3. In order to participate in the Olympiads, participants must fill out all fields of the "About me", "Address and Passport" tabs in their personal accounts and sign a Consent to the processing of personal data.

3.4. Electronic forms in personal accounts should be filled out by the participants in Russian. Foreign nationals participating in the Olympiads should fill out their personal accounts in English in strict accordance with their international passports (in absence of international passports, it is allowed to fill in the information in accordance with the national passport) and in Russian in strict accordance with notarized translation of the international passport (in absence of international passports, it is allowed to fill in the information in accordance with the national passport). Participants are responsible for completeness and accuracy of the data provided in the registration form. It is not allowed to fill data with Caps Lock on. Complaints related to incorrect or incomplete completion of data in a participant's personal account or technical problems that occurred during remote registration will not be accepted or considered by the Organizing Committee after the registration for the final stage. The Organizing Committee has the right to disqualify the participant if incomplete or unreliable information is detected.

3.5. The Olympiads participants of the previous years can use their personal accounts without having to re-register for the 2025/26 academic year, provided that their personal data is updated. Complaints related to the personal account information not being updated after the end of registration for the final stage will not accepted and considered by the Organizing Committee. The Organizing Committee has the right to disqualify the participant if incomplete or unreliable information is detected.

Tasks are posted in three packages of 5 tasks each and are available from the time of posting until the end of the Qualifying Stage. The score for the Qualifying Stage is calculated as a sum of points received for all tasks of two packages.

Dates of publishing the packages:

− Package 1 - October 26, 2026

− Package 2 - November 09, 2026

To check the task participants should send the source codes of the program, which are checked on a set of tests, and, based on the number of tests passed, points are awarded for each task. A participant can get a maximum of 100 points for each task. Maximum score for 3 packages of tasks is 1000 points.

The list of available compilers in the testing : C++, Java, Python, Pascal.

4.3. The Qualifying Stage in Design is held in the form of a creative task. During the Qualifying Stage, specified in par. 4.1, the participant shall complete the work in accordance with the instructions to the task and upload completed work in electronic form to the personal account. In the "Qualifying stage" tab of the personal account, the work can be uploaded once; only one file is allowed to be uploaded. The work should not contain any notes unrelated to the task or indicating the authorship of the work (including in the file name). In case of non-compliance with the specified requirements, the Organizing Committee has the right to annul the work.

4.4. In case of a technical failure, a participant can log in to the Olympiad system again if the time set for completing the task is not over.

4.5. In case of a technical failure that made it impossible for a participant to participate in the Olympiad through no fault of his/her own, such participant has the right to send a written request to the Organizing Committee's e-mail mpo@kpfu.ru within three working days after the failure and no later than the day of publication of the rating lists. In this request, a participant must describe in detail the incident that occurred with the attachment of supporting documents (a screenshot of the computer screen, photos and other documents with an error message). If the Organizing Committee recognizes the cause of the technical failure as valid, it shall assist the participant with repeated participation in the Olympiad.

4.6. For each chosen subject, any registered participant can complete the tasks only once. If a participant has completed the tasks more than once in the same subject, only the first result will be considered in the rating table.

4.7. The duration of the Qualifying Stage session for each subject is counted down from the moment a participant clicks on "Start the Test" and is specified in Appendix 1 hereto.

4.8. If the participant did not click the "Finish and submit for review" button after completing the tasks, the work will score 0 points.

8.12. KFU's official representatives shall collect and seal the completed papers and deliver them to the organizing committee for coding and submission to the jury.

8.13. Official representatives shall be personally responsible for safeguarding the tasks received from the organizing committee and for keeping them confidential

9. Rules of Conduct for Participants During the Final Round of the Olympiads Using Distance Learning Technologies

9.1. Olympiads held remotely using a proctoring system may be conducted only in subject areas not included in the List of Olympiads of the Russian Council of School Olympiads.

9.2. Olympiads may be held remotely only if participants' identities are verified using an identity document.

9.3. Acceptable identity documents are a passport, an international passport, or a school-issued certificate bearing the participant's photograph and the school's seal.

9.4. During the Olympiads, participants must observe the following rules of conduct:

9.4.1. At the start of the Olympiad, the participant must use an external camera to conduct a thorough scan of the room, including the work area. The camera may be a mobile phone or a webcam capable of scanning a QR code.

9.4.2. The use of electronic devices, cheat sheets, or other aids is strictly prohibited, except for materials provided or authorized by the Organizer. The presence of any electronic device—even if switched off—or of any cheat sheet or other aid shall be treated as its use.

9.4.3. Participants must complete the Olympiad in a browser window displayed in full-screen mode. Opening other tabs or pages not required to take the Olympiad is prohibited.

9.4.4. Participants must not seek assistance from third parties or involve third parties in using the items listed in Clause 9.4.2 while taking the Olympiad.

9.4.5. The webcam must be positioned so that the participant's face and the desk surface used for completing the Olympiad remain in view throughout the session.

9.4.6. Hair, clothing, or any other object must not obscure the participant's face.

9.4.7. Participants must not speak during the Olympiad, including reading tasks aloud, or ask questions about the content of the tasks.

9.4.8. A participant may leave the webcam's field of view once while completing the work, for no more than five (5) minutes.

9.5. A participant will not be admitted to the Olympiad if they violate the identity-verification procedure or if it is not possible to verify their identity.

9.6. No other person, including a relative, may be present in the room with the participant.

9.7. Participants must not leave the webcam's field of view; disable, cover, or reduce the microphone's sound sensitivity; disable or cover the webcam; allow third parties to access the computer; or open additional browser tabs or windows.

9.8. Participants must not use more than one display device (monitor, projector, or TV), more than one keyboard, or more than one pointing device (mouse, trackpad, or similar); nor may they run third-party software, except software required for the operation of the computer used to take the Olympiad.

9.9. A participant's Olympiad is considered complete only after the session has ended in the testing and proctoring system.

9.10. If a participant violates Clauses 9.2–9.8 of these Olympiad Regulations, they may be disqualified and their result annulled on the basis of a jury report containing the decision to disqualify the participant.

10. Rules of Conduct for Participants During the Final Round of the Olympiads

10.1. The duration of the final round for each subject area is specified in Appendix 1 to these Regulations.

10.2. On the day of the final round, participants must arrive at the venue no later than 40 minutes before the start of the Olympiad to be assigned to examination rooms and receive instructions.

10.3. Participants will receive an answer sheet and rough-work paper in the examination room. Participants may not use paper they have brought with them or that has been provided by other persons.

10.4. Participants who arrive no more than 30 minutes after the start of the Olympiad may take part, but will not receive extra time to complete the tasks. Participants who arrive more than 30 minutes after the start will not be admitted.

10.5. If unforeseen circumstances arise that prevent the Olympiad from being held—including force majeure, an unfavorable sanitary and epidemiological situation in the country, or the introduction of special restrictions—the organizing committee may decide to change the start and end times for completing the tasks, provided that the necessary measures are taken to protect the confidentiality of the tasks, or to cancel the Olympiad.

10.6. During the Olympiad, participants must not communicate or exchange any materials, objects, or tasks; copy from others or allow others to copy from them; leave their seats without the organizer's representatives' permission; or have on their person or at their workstation any means of communication (including mobile phones, smartwatches, headphones, or other communication devices), electronic computing equipment, programmable calculators, photographic, audio, or video equipment, reference materials, written notes on any medium, or other means of storing or transmitting information. Exceptions are special technical equipment for participants with disabilities and items authorized for use during the Olympiad. The list of authorized items is determined annually by the methodological commission and the organizing committee, approved by a decision of the organizing committee, and published on the Olympiad webpage.

10.7. The materials, objects, and devices listed in Clause 10.6 of these Regulations may not be used either in the examination room or anywhere else in the building throughout the Olympiad, until the time allotted for completing the task has ended.

10.8. If there are reasonable grounds to suspect that a participant has unauthorized materials, objects, or devices listed in Clause 10.6, the organizer may require the participant to present them, if they are present, or demonstrate that they are not present. The participant must comply. If the participant refuses, the organizer may bar them from further participation in the Olympiad for the current year, and this decision may not be appealed.

10.9. Participants in the Mathematics final round may not use any calculators.

10.10. Participants in the Physics and Chemistry final rounds may use non-programmable calculators.

10.11. Participants must stop working when the allotted time expires. Continuing to work after that time will be considered a violation of the rules for participation in the Olympiad.

10.12. The organizer's representatives will accept a participant's work for marking upon presentation of an identity document. If the participant does not have an identity document, their work must still be submitted but will not be marked.

10.13. Participants may bring into the examination room only a transparent plastic bottle (no more than 500 milliliters) of still mineral water, chocolate in non-crinkly packaging, and medication.

10.14. Participants in the final round must complete their work using a black gel pen only. Ballpoint pens and pens of any other color are prohibited. Work must be neatly presented and written legibly. Corrections are not permitted.

10.15. Participants in the Design final round must bring the following materials: A2 drawing paper, graphite pencils of various hardness grades, an eraser, and a pencil sharpener.

10.16. If necessary, a participant may leave the examination room no more than twice and for no longer than six minutes each time, accompanied by an invigilator.

10.17. If a participant presents a medical certificate, the requirements set out in Clause 10.15 may be adjusted in the participant's favor.

10.18. Participants may leave the examination room one hour after the Olympiad begins. They may not leave during the final 30 minutes.

10.19. Participants in the final round may submit their work early, but no later than 30 minutes before the Olympiad ends. Submitting work less than 30 minutes before the end is prohibited.

10.20. A participant in the final round may take the Olympiad task sheet with them only after the allotted time has ended.

10.21. If a participant violates these Rules of Conduct, the organizer's authorized officials shall draw up a report documenting the violation and the participant's failure to complete the relevant round of the Olympiad. For an in-person Olympiad, the participant shall also be removed from the venue. If a violation becomes known after the relevant round has ended but before its final results have been approved, the participant may be disqualified and their result annulled on the basis of a jury report recording the decision to disqualify them

11. Procedure for Marking and Evaluating Participants' Work in the Final Round of the Olympiads

11.1. After the final round, the organizing committee collects the completed work, assigns codes to it, and forwards it to the responsible coordinator no later than two days after the final round.

11.2. Marked work is made available in participants' personal accounts on the day after the ranking lists for each subject area are published. Work completed by participants in Design and Computer Science is provided upon request only.

11.3. The responsible coordinator forwards the coded work to the jury. The jury marks, evaluates, and scans it within 10 to 20 business days.

11.4. Each completed task is awarded a score in points. The maximum score for each subject area is 100 points. The maximum score for Computer Science is 500 points

11.5. Rough work is not coded or marked.

11.6. Based on the marked work, the organizing committee and the jury prepare draft minutes containing the results and ranking lists of participants, ordered by the total points each participant earned for completing the Olympiad tasks.

11.7. The minutes containing the results are approved by the chair and members of the jury.

11.8. No later than 25 business days after the final round in each subject area, the organizing committee publishes the participants' ranking lists on the Olympiad website.

11.9. Appeals may be submitted within three days of publication of the participants' ranking lists.

11.10. Appeals are accepted only from email addresses registered in the participant's personal account on the Olympiad website.

11.11. Appeals must be submitted to the Olympiad's official email address, regolimp@kpfu.ru, in Word or PDF format using the form published on the official Olympiad website.

11.12. After the appeals committee has conducted the appeal procedure, the jury prepares the final minutes, signed by the jury chair and members, and determines the candidates for winner and runner-up status.

11.13. The complete set of documents is forwarded to the organizing committee.

11.14. The results of the final round are published on the Olympiad website.

11.15. The final minutes of the Olympiads are published on the Olympiad website no later than March 31, 2027.
